Highlights

Term life insurance premiums written fell 2.3% YoY, due to the drop in premiums from policy renewals, partially offset by the improvement of both the new sales and churn.

The credit life insurance grew 10.4% YoY. The performance was explained by the increase of sales volume, led by the higher penetration on payroll loans.

The premiums of rural segment were up 14.7% in May, driven by the good performance in all the products (crop +11.6%, rural lien +16.3% and credit life for farmers +17.0%). The performance was mainly explained by the release of government subsidies to complement the crop cycle 2022/2023.
